THE 4TH INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON TEACHER PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Aims and Scopes

The 4th ICTPD is an international meeting point for professionals and practitioners in education to share, reflect, and exchange ideas as well as experiences in researching and supporting Teacher Professional Development across educational levels. The conference also aims at further expanding its network to include other educational institutions across the world.

The theme of the 4th ICTPD is “Action Teaching and Action Learning for Quality Education”. Papers in this proceedings cover action research for learning innovation, pedagogy and learning innovation, ICT and learning innovation, learning of content subjects, cultural aspects in education and learning, quality assurance in teaching and learning, mentoring teachers as learners, and teacher education for 21st century.
