ABSTRACT

New student information system registration online is a computer application to facilitate the admission of new students are administered online.

Registration of new students is an administrative process that occurs every year for the selection of prospective students based on academic values in order to continue their education at a more advanced level.

New student registration application online to make it easier for prospective students who wish to enter the Junior High School in the District of Kudus.

Keywords: Information Systems, Online Registration, Admission of new students